

Adilson Luiz GONÇALVES

Title of current position

Professor and Researcher, Universidade Santa Cecília – UNISANTA
Engineer at the Port Affairs, Industry and Commerce Office of Santos City Hall

Institutional affiliation

Universidade Santa Cecília – UNISANTA
Port Affairs, Industry and Commerce Office of Santos City Hall

City, State/Country

Santos, São Paulo/Brasil

E-mail address

Institutional: adilson@unisanta.br
Professional: adilsonluiz@santos.sp.gov.br

CV

Master in Education, by the Catholic University of Santos - UNISANTOS (2008) Research Line 2: Educator Training - Political-Pedagogical Dimension, with a research project in the scope of use of technologies and interfaces between presential and distance learning. Researcher at NEPOMT - Brazilian Center of Port, Maritime and Territorial Studies (<http://plsq11.cnpq.br/buscaoperacional/detalhegrupo.jsp?grupo=4971605QZT3AKV>), from Santa Cecilia University - UNISANTA, in Santos, Sao Paulo, Brazil. Member of the Governing Board of RETE (<http://retedigital.com/en/rete/governance-and-management/board-of-directors/>). Coordinator of the Advanced Node of RETE - Association for Collaboration between Ports and Cities, in Brazil, based in UNISANTA. Member of the Scientific Committee of RETE (www.retedigital.com). Member of the Editorial Board of the PortusPlus Magazine (ISSN 2039-6422). Specialist at the Millenium Institute, Rio de Janeiro - Brazil (www.imil.org.br). Civil Engineer, graduated by UNISANTA (1982). Postgraduate in Construction and Public Works, by the Institut Supérieur du Béton Armé - ISBA, Marseille, France (1986). Postgraduate in Engineering Assessments and Expertise, by IBAPE-SP, (2000). Engineer at Santos City Hall since 1989, having already held technical and managerial positions in the following departments: Public Works and Services and Urban Development. Since 2010, works as technical advisor in the Municipal Port and Maritime Affairs Office – SEPORT, now named Municipal Port, Industry and Commerce Affairs Office – SAPIC, where participate in projects and initiatives in the areas of transport, logistics, port operations, training of port workers, regional development policies, revitalization of port degraded areas and others. Member of the Municipal Commission for Adaptation to Climate Change and Secretary of the Intersectorial Chamber of Development based on Port, Industry and Commerce Activities of the City Hall of Santos. Associate Coordinator of the Mobility Axis of the Metropolitan Area of Santos, of the Regional Development Council - CONDESB. Professor of graduate courses of Civil Engineering and Architecture and Urbanism at UNISANTA since 1997. Professor of graduate courses of Engineering and Health at UNISANTOS, from 1990 to 2010, having been the patron and honored teacher of several classes. Registered Tallyman at the Port of Santos since 1994. Experience in the areas of: education, structures, urban infrastructure, civil construction, logistics, port operations and planning and information and communication technologies. Lecturer.

Interpreter in the french language. Bestowed with the title "Friend of the Navy" in November of 2016, by the Navy of Brazil. Member of the Navy Friendship Society - SOAMAR from Santos since January 2017. Writer, poet, composer and columnist, collaborator of various brazilian media and awarded prizes in literary competitions. Member of the Academy of Literature of Santos, chair n. 16 since 2012. Author of the following books of chronicles, short stories and poetry: "SOBRE ALMAS E PILHAS" (2005), "DEST'ARTE" (2009) and "CLARAS VISÕES" (2010). Collaborator of the Institute of Listeners of Media Studies of Florianópolis (www.carosouvintes.org.br), where he signs the columns "Radio Ativa" and "Comportamento". Member of the Rotary Club of Santos-Porto.