

Rinio BRUTTOMESSO

Title of current position

President of RETE Association.
Architect and Urban Designer.
Founder and Co-Editor of PORTUS, magazine of RETE.

Institutional affiliation

RETE - International Association for the Collaboration between Ports and Cities.

City, State/Country

Venice, Italy

E-mail address

Institutional: presidente@retedigital.com
Professional: riniob@gmail.com

CV

President of RETE, Association for the collaboration between Ports and Cities (since april 2017).
Founder of RETE and former Director of the Scientific Committee of RETE.
Founder and Editor of PORTUS, six-monthly online magazine of RETE.
Architect and urban designer, former Assistant Professor of Urban Design at the Faculty of Architecture, IUAV University of Venice (Italy).
Former Director of the International Centre Cities on Water (Città d'Acqua), Venice (1989-2013).
Curator for the Venice Architecture Biennale of the special section Cities on Water of the 9th International Architecture Exhibition, in Venice, Arsenal – Floating Pavilion (2004) and the four exhibitions 'Città-Porto' (City-Port) of the 10th International Architecture Exhibition, in Palermo (2006).
Scientific Director of the Thematic Pavilion "Cities on Water" of Zaragoza International Expo 2008.
Member of the International Committee of Experts of the Biennial of Architecture of Buenos Aires.
Curator for the Biennial of Architecture of Buenos Aires of the exhibitions: "The new urban waterfronts" (2005), "Veneto 40: young Italian architects to the test" (2009) - also in Quito Architecture Biennale (2010), and "The Blue of the City. Four architects interpret the Urban Water "(2011).
Author of several publications on the redevelopment of the waterfronts and the Port-City relationship. Among others, "Waterfronts. A new frontier for cities on water", Venice , 1993; "Complexity on the urban waterfront", in "Waterfronts in Post-Industrial Cities", London and New York, 2001; "The Port City of the XXIst Century. New Challenges in the Relationship between Port and City", RETE, Venice, 2011.
Speaker in international meetings and conferences in many countries.